

In Memoriam.
Died, in Kansas City, Kas., October 2, 1901, Minnie Murphy Cash, wife of Dr. Arthur Cash, D. S., aged 21 years.
No day has been so bright but that there have appeared in the beautiful blue vault a fleecy cloud. No life so replete with gladness and joy but that there have come "a little rift in the blue." No home guarded with such affectionate care but that death hath ruthlessly made a vacant chair.
It does seem unjust and unkind that so soon after the sacred marriage vow and with such a brilliant and happy future before, for the young husband to see the eyelids close for the last time of his girl-wife, but the providences of God are beyond our frail comprehension, and just when we feel the need of "His strong arm" the most He seems to leave us all alone; but to doubt His love would be disloyal, and we must say
"Be strong to bear, O heart of mine!
Faint not when sorrows come,
The summit of these hills of earth
Touch the blue skies of home."
Minnie M. Cash was a most beautiful woman—beautiful in features and form—and beautiful in heart and soul. Yes, beautiful in life and beautiful in death. A kind and friendly disposition, always cheerful and sunny, she made many friends who were saddened at the announcement of her death. It is not strange that the manly young man who claimed her for his bride a short time ago only, was infatuated and charmed upon their first meeting.
Apparently in good health, a few weeks ago she went to join her husband in Kansas City, Kas., who is engaged successfully in the dental business in that place, when disease laid its withering hand upon the tender flower and it gradually succumbed until at last all life had vanished. All during her illness she was tenderly cared for by her fond sister, Mrs. Joe Cash, of De Queen, Ark., and her loving husband, who are bowed in deep sorrow over their great bereavement. To them we proffer our loving sympathy and may they have courage to say "Thy will be done."
"Be strong to hope, O heart of mine,
Look not on life's dark side;
For just beyond these gloomy hours
Rich, radiant days abide.
Let hope, like summer's rainbow bright,
Scatter thy falling tears;
And let God's precious promises
Dispel thy anxious fears.
For every grief a Lethe comes;
For every toil a rest—
So hope, so love, so patient bear,
God doeth all things best."
The remains were laid away in beautiful Machpelah, at Lexington.

Wentworth Won From Sedalia.
The Wentworth Military academy, of Lexington, defeated the Central Business College team of Sedalia Monday by a score of 25 to 0. Wentworth had spent the week in resting up and doing light scrimmage and signal practice and this told in their work, as the team work was almost perfect.
From the very start the cadets played faster ball and after holding Sedalia on downs after the kickoff made steady gains down the field for a touchdown in the first six minutes of play. There were no particularly sensational plays, but the entire work of the cadets was a revelation to their followers. They were always good for comfortable gains around the end and likewise as good through the line. Cole once made fifteen yards around left end and Albro made the same distance on a quarterback tack. Wilkins, a new man, played a great game at right tackle, but the real stars of the game were Ardinger, Cole and Simmons. The line-up:
W. M. A. S. B. C.
Doster C Imhoff
Craig L G Reese
Lewis R G Evans
Jamison L T Morris
Wilkins R T Letts
Sturgis L E Wells
Albro R E Swiggle
Simmons (capt) L F Dimmick
Cole R F McNeill (Capt)
Ardinger F B Kennedy

County Sunday Schools.
To the Officers, Teachers and Scholars:
We come in the Master's name to present to you a very important matter—The Missouri Sunday School Association and its Auxiliary, your own County Association. We want your prayers and a collection. They are needed or we would not ask. The collection is for township, county, state and international interdenominational Sunday school work—four collections all in one. One-half the collection is to be expended as needed by your own county executive Sunday school committee. We simply ask a collection—we do not even ask a large one—only a collection. It has been suggested by the state office that it should equal 5 cents for every scholar and 25 cents for each officer and teacher. It may not reach that amount. It may be more. Pray for this great interdenominational work. Take up the collection and send it at once to your Sunday school treasurer. Think of the more than four hundred thousand boys and girls in Missouri not in Sunday school and who are not receiving Bible instruction.

You may be doing well in your school and do not feel the need of the work of the state association or help of your county organization. Then rejoice as you contribute to help those who are not as fortunate as yourself.
The late state convention resolved that this work must be pursued with greater vigor than ever. The state executive committee—a noble board of consecrated workers—only wait your response. Let everyone help.
Respectfully,
COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
Send all communications and collections to Elder E. J. Fenstermacher, Secretary, Lexington, Mo.
